

ou can get this map stamped with interesting state symbols from each of the state tables in the Pavilion of the States, brought to you by the Center for the Book (read.gov) in the Library of Congress, the Institute of Museum and Library Services (imls.gov) and the Chief Officers of State Library Agencies (cosla.org). Visit their websites to learn more about these great organizations. And be sure to stop at the Center for the Book table to complete your map.

There is an affiliated Center for the Book in each state, the District of Columbia and the U.S. Virgin Islands. These centers spread the word throughout the land that "books give us wings."

Visit the Center for the Book's website to find out where your state center is located and to learn about the exciting programs offered by your State Center for the Book.
